VIDEI PALLIDI

A black and white caricature illustration by G. Bazzucchi depicting a chaotic scene at a rock concert. In the foreground, two men with large, bulbous noses and wild hair styles are shown. The man on the left has a speech bubble saying "...GUARDA COME SUONANO BENE...". The man on the right has a speech bubble saying "VIDEI PALLIDI". The background is filled with a crowd of people, some with animal heads like a lion and a bear, dancing and playing instruments. A large, multi-headed dragon-like creature with sharp teeth is in the center. The overall style is chaotic and expressive, with heavy use of black ink outlines and cross-hatching for shading.
